

OVERVIEW

- World Trade Center Seattle (WTCSE) is one of more than 300 World Trade Centers around the world.
- WTCSE serves as a tribute to the importance of international trade in the Pacific Northwest, providing a place where leaders can come together to share ideas and strengthen their business connections.
- WTCSE offers a complete range of business services and four full-service boardrooms.
- WTCSE has an elegant dining room and outdoor terrace offering extraordinary views of Elliott Bay and the Olympic Mountains.
- The architecture of the four-story WTCSE complements its surrounding natural environment and the adjacent Bell Harbor International Conference Center, Seattle's premier waterfront conference center.
- WTCSE is owned by the Port of Seattle and operated by Columbia Hospitality.

LOCATION

Centrally located on Seattle's waterfront, WTCSE is within walking distance of water-view hotels and restaurants, the world-famous Pike Place Market, and the city's thriving retail district. WTCSE is also near world-class museums; the internationally acclaimed Benaroya Hall, home of the Seattle Symphony; and numerous live theater venues and other cultural amenities.

HOLLAND AMERICA LINE DINING ROOM

- Guests delight their senses with Pacific Northwest cuisine in an architecturally stunning setting with awe-inspiring water and mountain views.
- Lunch is served Monday through Friday from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- The Holland America Line dining room is available for social events, such as weddings, receptions, and private parties with accommodations for up to 90 people for dining and 150 for a cocktail reception.
- The dining room features customized menu planning with the executive chef and planning staff.
- Parking and valet parking are available.
- Adjacent breakout rooms are available for larger receptions and multiple-room functions.
- WTCSE offers assistance with floral arrangements, entertainment, RSVP coordination, registration, and name badge coordination and other needs.

DINING

WTCSE chefs utilize Pacific Northwest ingredients in preparing culinary masterpieces. Full catering options, including customized menus, are available to ensure the finest dining experiences for guests.

MEETING FACILITIES

- WTSCE's four boardrooms offer intimate and private settings in an executive setting.
 - Boardrooms are designed for groups of eight up to 30.
 - Elegantly furnished, all rooms include tack-able wall surfaces, hardwood tables, whiteboards, and screens.
 - WTCSE members receive complimentary use of boardrooms and the Holland American Line Dining Room for casual meetings before and after lunch service; both spaces are also available for rent to non-member businesses groups.
-

PROPERTY CONTACT INFORMATION

Katy Willis, Director of Sales and Sponsorship
World Trade Center Seattle
2200 Alaskan Way, Suite 410
Seattle, WA 98121
t: 206.956.4588 | f: 206.441.6665
kwillis@wtcseattle.com | wtcseattle.com

MEDIA CONTACT

Hamilton McCulloh
Erin Petrie
Green Rubino for World Trade Center Seattle
206.957.4260 | columbiahospitality@greenrubino.com

ABOUT COLUMBIA HOSPITALITY

Columbia Hospitality, Inc. (Columbia), a Seattle-based hospitality management and consulting firm with a growing portfolio of award-winning hotels, spas, conference centers. Award-winning restaurants, and unique hospitality venues, was founded in 1995 by John Oppenheimer.

The company's continued success has led to an international expansion of the consulting division and more than 80 hospitality projects in the western United States, Florida, Canada, Portugal and the United Kingdom.

With expertise in luxury hotel and resort management, Columbia creates memorable experiences for guests and team members while achieving phenomenal results for owners.

For more information about Columbia, visit: columbiahospitality.com