

THE OITAVOS

*The Oitavos, five star luxury hotel, opening summer 2010;
offers state-of-the-art conference facilities*

January 2010: The Oitavos, a new five-star luxury hotel, is launching in summer 2010 in Portugal. Located just 20 minutes west of Lisbon, the hotel is set within the Sintra Cascais National Park with far reaching views over the West Atlantic coastline. Set amongst natural sand dunes and pine trees, its bold contemporary design, sleek lines and elegantly simple interiors focus attention outwards embracing the dramatic natural surroundings.

Situated only 20 minutes from Lisbon Airport (less than three hours flying time from Europe's major cities), The Oitavos provides the ideal environment to do business, entertain clients and enjoy world class business support services in a private and relaxed environment.

The hotel features a state-of-the-art conference centre for up to 300 people with sophisticated technology and flexible meeting spaces; there are five additional meeting and boardrooms catering for up to 150 people. Dedicated facilities for corporate groups include a private entrance, check-in desk and dining room whilst each meeting room offers space, comfort, daylight views and the best technical support.
