OVERVIEW

- Bell Harbor International Conference Center is Seattle's premier waterfront conference venue, with 18 meeting rooms totaling 100,000 square feet and capacity for up to 6,000 guests. Bell Harbor is equipped with state-of-the-art technology and amenities, and provides the finest service and cuisine.
- Popular meeting areas include the 300-seat Bay Auditorium, fashioned after the United Nations, and the Rooftop Plaza, which has views of Seattle's skyline, the Olympic Mountains, and Mount Rainier.
- Bell Harbor's amenities make it the perfect place for professional conferences and retreats, weddings, and other special events.
- Opened in June 1996, Bell Harbor has undergone a series of renovations and additions to increase guest capacity and provide guests with the highest technology standards.
- Bell Harbor also manages catering and events for World Trade Center Seattle, and Maritime Event Center.
- Bell Harbor International Conference Center, World Trade Center Seattle, and Maritime Event Center are all owned by the Port of Seattle and managed by Seattle-based Columbia Hospitality.

LOCATION

- The Bell Street Pier location is four blocks from Pike Place Market and the downtown Seattle core.
- Bell Harbor's neighbors include the Edgewater Hotel, Marriott Seattle Waterfront Hotel, and Anthony's Pier 66 Restaurant.

DINING

Jay Bartleson, Executive Chef Bell Harbor, and his team select the freshest products and finest local and regional ingredients, when preparing top-quality cuisine for guests. From Pacific Northwest produce and seafood including Dungeness Crab, Alaskan King Salmon, and Penn Cove Mussels to Washington wines, Bell Harbor guests can expect the best.

TECHNOLOGY

- Bell Harbor is the most technologically advanced conference center on the West Coast. The onsite technology staff specialize in custom designing packages to include:
 - Complimentary high-speed internet access throughout the facility with sufficient bandwidth for hundreds of heavy users and the ability to support thousands of clients with connections up to 100 Mb/s
 - Built-in rear projection systems with computer graphic capabilities
 - Satellite down-linking
 - Videoconferencing
 - Electronic polling system
 - Touch-screen presentation control units
- Bell Harbor's Bay Auditorium is the only conference center in the United States that has six built-in simultaneous interpretation booths for multiple language events and meetings.
- Bell Harbor is the first conference center on the West Coast to offer built-in rear projection systems and computer graphic capabilities in all major conference rooms. The walls of the Bay Auditorium were built around the huge glass projection screens.

CONFERENCE AMENITIES

- Ergonomically designed Herman Miller Aeron chairs for all-day comfort
- Onsite meeting planners so the same team member handles an assigned event from beginning to end
