

OVERVIEW

- Friday Harbor House, perched atop a bluff on beautiful San Juan Island, overlooks the scenic harbor.
- The Bluff Restaurant ▪ Bar ▪ Terrace at Friday Harbor House features an array of exquisite dishes prepared from fresh, locally caught seafood, as well as produce and other products from the San Juan Islands.
- The Inn is owned by Lang and Anne Simons and is managed by Seattle-based Columbia Hospitality.

LOCATION

- Accessible via a serene ferry ride through the San Juan Islands or a quick floatplane trip from Seattle.
- A block and a half from the Washington state ferry terminal and marina.
- The Inn's central island location provides easy access to an array of activities, including whale watching, antique shopping, hiking, biking, kayaking, sailing, Scuba diving, golf and tennis.

GUESTROOMS

Each of the 23 elegantly appointed guest rooms and suites have their own fireplace and sitting area, as well as an oversized-jetted bathtub, in addition to a European queen bed, waffle-weave bathrobes, a coffee maker and refrigerator.

DINING

Chef Kyle Nicholson prepares an array of fresh fare from the local waters and farms, showcased in a mouthwatering menu of small plates, savory sandwiches, colorful salads and seasonal specialties at The Bluff Restaurant ▪ Bar ▪ Terrace. Dinner and the Inn's complimentary gourmet "signature" breakfast are served daily.

SPA TREATMENTS

Friday Harbor House offers luxurious spa treatments in the comfort of your guestroom. Harborside, fireside, peace and tranquility. A peaceful and tranquil addition to your Friday Harbor House experience.

MEETING FACILITIES

A 1,070-square-foot, fully equipped meeting and event facility accommodates groups of up to 100 guests, and a 300-square-foot meeting suite accommodates up to 10 guests. Reservations for the entire Inn are available upon request.
