

OVERVIEW

Towering above Seattle Southside's retail core and transportation hub, Hotel Interurban provides unparalleled views, convenience and innovation. The hotel is the tallest building in the city of Tukwila and offers 185 contemporary-style guest rooms, as well as over 15,000 square feet of meeting and event spaces. The entrance is composed of an outdoor canopy made up of 60 solar panels that produce enough electricity for most of the first-floor operations, followed by a two-story lobby featuring a custom glass art installation by local artist Bryan Rubino. The hotel includes an on-site restaurant, Waterleaf Restaurant & Bar, and Urban Roast, a grab-and-go espresso bar that also provides 24-hour food vending services.

Hotel Interurban is owned by a group of local real estate developers with ties to Seattle Southside, and will be operated and managed by Seattle-based Columbia Hospitality, Inc. The hotel is connected to Airmark Apartments, which features 350 residential apartments for rent.
